

Concerning RM-10868, the Radio Amateur Foundation petition for expanding no code license privileges into the HF band. I agree with all features of the petition except with the frequency allocation, which should reflect the ARRL petition RM-10867. Code should remain as it is important for both emergency communication as well as international relations. International communication can be held using code without either side having a conversational level in each other's language.